Mosque

How many Mosques are there in the world?

According to google there are about 3.6 million Mosques in the world.

There are also 3 holy Mosques. The names of the Mosques are:

- Al-Masjid al-Haram (including the Kaaba)
- Al-Masjid an-Nabawi in Medina
- Al-Masjid al-Aqsa, or the Temple Mount, in Jerusalem

These are some of my favourite Mosques

- Al-Masjid al-Haram

Masjid Al-Haram or the Forbidden Mosque is one of the oldest Mosques built in the history of Islam. It is so-called because the doors are open to Muslims all over the world but with no offence, non-Muslims are not allowed. It is also called The Great Mosque of Makkah.

- Al-Masjid al-Aqsa

Masjid Al Aqsa has a significant importance in islam as it was the first Qiblah of Muslims. The Mosque which we today refer to as Masjid Al Aqsa is the Qiblah Mosque which is supposed to be close to the Qiblah.
